ROCSEVELT RALLY STARTLES RIVALS

Republicans Confident Maine Address Has Carried State for Hughes.

DEMOCRATS IN DESPAIR

Rival Meeting Held in Effort to Pull Through Local

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 1.-Republican leaders are satisfied the Roosevelt meeting here last night dealt a mortal blow to Wilson's hope of getting Progressive support in Maine, . Even Democratic newspapers to-day describe the reception to the former President as one of the greatest demonstrations the State

Roosevelt picked Lewiston in which to deliver his first speech for Hughes because this city had been the centre of a big Progressive vote. Democratic campaign managers had been making the most of such Progressive disaffection toward the Republican ticket as

Democratic managers are gasping, but still talk of pulling through their State ticket. When they learned of the plan to have Roosevelt in Lewiston they ar-ranged for what they fondly hoped would be an offset. A Democratic demonstration for the twin cities of Lewis-ton and Auburn was scheduled for tonight. Bainbridge Colby, as a former Progressive who had declared for Wilgressive who had declared for Wil-, was to hold the Progressives away

The meeting was held to-night in Auburn. As a local affair it was a good meeting; as an attempt to rival the Roosevelt meeting it was a pitiful antisive leader of New York, a one time Procandidate for United States
It was intimated the mantle of Progressive leadership once worn by Roosevelt had fallen on Colby and was

t suited Colby's purpose to assume he was addressing a Progressive audience; it was, in fact, a Democratic audience, as he knew. He had been asked be "pit h into" Roosevelt, and he did.

But I find he came into Maine not as a Progressive but as a repentant Republican. He had nothing whatever to say about the prin-eiples to which he gave only a little while ago his pledge of unceasing devotion. He offers no excuse or justification for his abandonment of the Progressive party, but frankly says that he is 'down here in the interest of the success of the Republican party."

Colby said Roosevelt in his Lewiston That President Wilson sent troops to they had done considerably better tughes would thank Roosevelt for the speech in which he said Roosevelt had shown he regards Hughes as a "pussyfoote" to one of the points upon which embelieves should be said in this campaign.
